Dear Martin

I have just got the dishes washed now I will write you a few lines. Your and Mr Keddy went to Wellington to church Mr Walsh preached he is up here to marry Lisle Hutchins tomorrow. Its not as pleasant today as it was last Sunday we are having a snow storm after the cold blow out we had last week wasnt it fierce the way the wind blew.

Marcia is about the same she cant eat any better then when you was here. the doctor was up yesterday he says she is coming slowly - I cant see in what way. she wants me to thank you for the Paper she enjoys reading it very much. and the sample copy looks very nice she hasnt tried it yet the Dr says he thinks toast may be a little to heavy for her stomach. we had a great time trying to guess what was in the box before we opened it I took off the outside paper and then gave it to Marcia to lift the cover and see what was inside. I shall let her try some of it in a few days. The Dr wants her to take Malted milk he brought up a sample bottle and she has taken that - and I guess she better have some more - he wants me to look for gold stones but I haven't found any so far.

Josh and Senecal had some trouble and Josh stabbed Senecal in the shoulder and ^{she} have taken him to Skowhegan and put him in jail

Grace Howard sent you a present. I think it is a Sofa Pillow cover I guess I would send it down I may have a chance to carry it - before long but I will send her letter and you can answer it - she did not know your address so wrote to me. Aunt Eva sent a card to you with ours. everything is just the same. Fous has bought that - Barn and they are going to get it home as soon as they can get it taken down. Lovingly Mamma
